

CENTENARY OF LIONS CLUBS INTERNATIONAL

Lions Clubs International is a secular and politically non-aligned service organisation that empowers volunteers to serve their communities, meet humanitarian needs, encourage peace and promote international understanding. Through a foundation and clubs throughout the world, Lions International is involved in a wide range of community and humanitarian initiatives, including supporting the work of the United Nations. Lions International was established in 1917 in Chicago, USA, by businessman Melvin Jones. Today, Lions International is the world's largest service club, with 1.4 million members in more than 46,000 clubs in more than 200 countries and geographic areas, including at least 1,200 in Australia and Papua New Guinea. The motto of Lions Clubs International is "We Serve".
